

GC pilot believed killed in Grenada

By VALERIE EVENDEN
of the Press-Record

Unofficial word of the death in the Grenada invasion of Army Captain Keith Joseph Lucas, 26, of Granite City, has been received by his father, Stanley R. Lucas, 161 Arlington Road, Arlington Heights.

As late as Sunday afternoon, however, Captain Lucas, a helicopter pilot, still remained officially listed among those missing in action on the East Caribbean island, which was invaded by U.S. troops Tuesday.

An officer in Capt. Lucas' unit, who was with him on Grenada, told the father the local pilot was killed when his Blackhawk UH-60 helicopter was struck by anti-aircraft shells and small arms fire while attempting to land between 10 and 15 Rangers near Point Salines, on the southern tip of the 21-mile-long island.

Many of the Rangers in the aircraft which Capt. Lucas was co-piloting were wounded, but none was killed, the father was told. It is not known if any of the other five "copter crewmembers" were hurt.

Capt. Lucas was seated in the pilot's seat at the time the helicopter crashed landed near the air strip. "He took the full force of a shell and didn't know anything," his commander told Mr. Lucas.

Official information given the officer's wife, the former Paula Werthas of Granite City, only lists her husband as missing. Mrs. Lucas, who is expecting the couple's second child in January, is awaiting further word at their home at Fort Campbell, Ky., along with their young daughter, Anne Marie, 2.

On Sunday, the Pentagon reported the U.S. death toll from the Grenada invasion still stood at 16. A total of nine servicemen was added to the list of U.S. wounded, raising it to 77. Three other men are missing, the Pentagon said. The names of the missing were not released.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas went to Fort Campbell Thursday upon learning their son was reported missing.

They returned to Granite City early Sunday after the father, "called everyone in the country we knew or could think of," in an effort to gain some news of his son. He then talked Saturday with the commander of Capt. Lucas' unit and others who had returned to Fort Campbell from Grenada.

"I was told they have evacuated all casualties from the unit and had recovered all aircraft Wednesday, but one — this one (Capt. Lucas)," the father said.

"Keith's body is supposed to be at Dover (Air Force Base) in Delaware, but we can't get positive confirmation," the father stressed. The lack of concrete information and details which the father contends, "they are not telling and which is taken out of context to the situation," is causing great concern and anguish for the Lucas family.

"What I have heard is far different than what has been heard in the official reports," Lucas said. "Keith went in with the first wave of the assault force, trying to land the airborne troops on the airstrip at Point Salines, and the initial attack ran into heavy flak and small arms fire. A colonel told me the fire they (troops) met was heavier than he had encountered in Vietnam," Lucas reported.

"They were trying to set down and the aircraft received extremely heavy anti-aircraft fire, mixed with small arms fire."

"I believe reports of the number of casualties are completely out of context with the information I've received from sources who have returned to Fort Campbell," he said.

Lucas was critical of reports that the Cubans knew of the attack in advance from an "unofficial leak" by one of the allies. "They (Cuban soldiers) were waiting for them over there and it was like sending them to a meat grinder."

Capt. Lucas was with the 18th Aviation Battalion, 160th Task Force, Special Operations, which is part of the 101st Airborne Division. The officer also is the son of Mrs. Shirley McAllister of Baton Rouge, La., formerly of Granite City.

He graduated in 1975 from Granite City High School North, where he played football and was named "all Metro guard."

Capt. Lucas graduated in 1979 from Washington University, St. Louis, after spending his junior year as an exchange student at the University of Tübingen in Germany. "He was fluent in German," his father said.

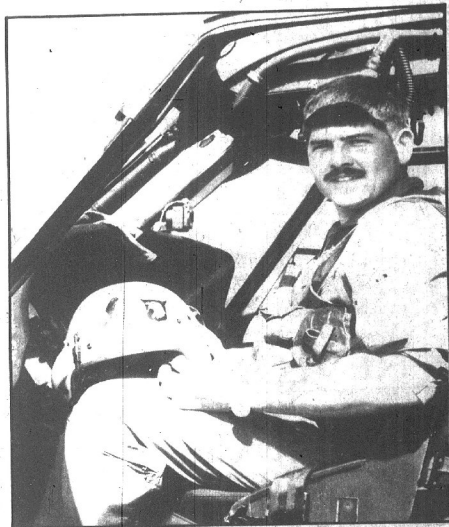

At Washington University, he was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity and ROTC. He was commissioned a lieutenant upon enlisting in the Army in July 1979.

Capt. Lucas graduated from the helicopter pilot training school at Fort Rucker, Ala., and he was assigned to the 101st Airborne.

He and his wife, Paula, were married in April 1980 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Besides his wife, daughter and parents, the officer leaves two brothers, Stanley Mark Lucas of Baton Rouge, La., and Brian Thomas Lucas, an EMT with Campbell's Ambulance Service, and his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Lucas of Madison.

"I am so proud of Keith," his father said Sunday. Although the Army has not indicated when Capt. Lucas' body will be released to the family, Lucas said a military funeral at Sacred Heart Church will be scheduled.

CAPT. KEITH LUCAS, 26, is believed killed when his helicopter was shot during a landing with one of the first assault waves on Grenada.

the Meridian Ballroom and attend other activities throughout the center. Accomplished handicapped artists will be on hand to share their talents, and area high school students will provide additional arts activities for the younger students.

Woman is indicted in fatality

By ED GURNEY

A Madison County grand jury Thursday indicted a Granite City woman who was involved in a fatal accident on Illinois 159 in Maryville early Tuesday, Oct. 25.

The woman, Bonnie Wilson, 24, was charged with reckless homicide. She was being held in the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville in lieu of $30,000 bond. Several misdemeanors were filed earlier after her southbound car allegedly crossed the center line and struck a northbound car head-on, fatally injuring the driver.

Killed was Sandra Dierkes, 31, of Caseville, who was living with a relative on Patty Drive, Maryville. She was pronounced dead on arrival at Oliver C. Anderson Hospital in Maryville 53 minutes after the crash.

Trick-or-treating tonight

All youngsters and parents in the Quad-City area are being reminded that neighborhood trick-or-treat visits should be restricted to between the hours of 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. in all four communities, the three-hour period will be reserved for trick-or-treat adventures, and Quad-City area residents wishing youngsters to visit should leave exterior porch and door lights on.

Police chiefs suggest that parents keep their youngsters in their own neighborhoods or streets, and restrict their calls to homes of people they know.

St. Elizabeth Medical Center will be X-raying candy collected by youngsters from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. X-rays are free.

It is suggested that parents inspect all items brought home by a child for pinholes, torn packaging, off-color odors or questionable appearance.

Also tonight, the annual Halloween parade in downtown Granite City, sponsored by Moose Lodge 272, will start at 7 p.m. at the city hall on Niedringhaus Ave.

A judging of the masqueraders will be conducted and first, second and third place cash prizes will be presented to those wearing the funniest, the most original and the scariest outfits.

In the event of inclement weather, the costume-judging segment of the parade will take place beneath the canopy area at First Granite City National Bank.

Unemployment decline

Spurred by gains in several areas, unemployment decreased by 2½ percent in Granite City during September, dropping to 16.4 percent, the Research and Analysis section of the Illinois Department of Labor reported Friday.

The unemployment picture in Granite City improved from 19.4 percent in August's final figures to the 16.9 percent in the September preliminary figures.

Velda Gerstenecker, labor market economist for the Department of Labor, explained, "It was just a general upward movement that we hope sustains itself." Contributing factors, she said, included the settlement of a Communications Workers of America strike against AT&T (Bell Telephone), excellent weather for construction and gains in professional services and trade.

Since the figures actually reflect from mid-month to mid-month, settlement of teacher strikes in Granite City and Alton were reflected in the August figures and are not responsible for the 2½ percent unemployment decline in the September figures, she noted.

The number of persons employed in Granite City increased from 16,450 in August to 16,725 last month, while unemployment declined from 3,860 persons to 3,400 in September, it was reported. The size of the overall labor force, working and unemployed, declined from 20,400 to 20,125 last month in the city.

One dead, 3 hurt in Mitchell crash

A 17-year-old Granite City youth was killed at 11:30 p.m. Friday when the car in which he was a passenger overturned on Old Alton Road, one mile south of Maryville Road, Illinois State Police said Sunday.

Three other youths were injured in the accident. One is believed to be in serious condition.

David Leroy Weber, 17, of 2626 Lincoln Ave., was pronounced dead at the scene by Madison County Deputy Coroner William Stenberg.

Thomas G. Jordan, 16, of 2631 Lincoln Ave., the driver, was seriously hurt. He taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center and then transferred to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis.

Two other passengers in the vehicle, Thomas M. Lyons, 16, of 2906 E. 25th

St., and Patrick M. Hurcoy, 16, of 2755 Washington Ave., also were injured, state police report.

According to an ISP officer, Jordan's auto ran off the roadway on a curve, about one mile south of Maryville Road, and overturned. It is presumed the vehicle was traveling south on Old Alton Road, a two-lane winding road, at the time, an officer said.

Mr. Weber had attended Granite City High School and resided here his entire life. He leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred (Nancy) Weber of Granite City, two brothers, four sisters and a great-grandmother.

Funeral services were at 1 p.m. Monday. Details are given in the obituary column.

Citizens group sees educational changes

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Granite City schools are good and getting better, they are also going to be different than they are now, as the Citizens Advisory Committee sees it.

Dramatic changes may be about to sweep the nation, somewhat reminiscent of the Sputnik-era rededication to excellence in education, CAC members believe. They hope to be in the forefront of local study and effort leading to improved procedures and results.

Condensed reports on three newsmaking reports—Conant, Carnegie and the National Commission—were presented to the CAC last week by James Dumont, District Nine secondary schools administrator.

The citizens committee in November will meet with Thomas Holloway, career education and vocational administrator, and Russell Chappell, mathematics department head.

Test scores show Granite City students ahead of state and national standards. But U.S. students in some respects are not as attuned to education "basics" as their parents were.

Noting that a much wider range of subject matter is being presented in classrooms, the Illinois Office of Education and others are calling for more class time and more homework to help young people hone their skills.

Precisely what avenues of improvement will be emphasized by local school officials, teachers and citizens have not yet been selected.

Chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee is Kathy Dauer, who along

Guidelines for free, reduced price lunches

All Quad-City area schools, including Granite City, Madison and Venice public and parochial schools will observe uniform guidelines for free and reduced price meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the National School Lunch and School Breakfast Programs.

Local school officials have adopted the following family size and income criteria for determining eligibility for free meals or free milk:

One person-$6,318; family of two-$8,502; three-$10,686; four-$12,870; five-$15,054; six-$17,238; seven-$19,422; eight-$21,606. For each additional family member, $2,184 may be added.

Maximum family incomes to qualify for reduced price meals is:

One person-$8,991; family of two-$12,099; three-$15,207; four-$18,315; five-$21,423; six-$24,531; seven-$27,639; eight-$30,747. For each additional family member, $3,108 may be added.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in letters to parents. To apply for free or reduced price meals, households should fill out the application and return it to the school. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

Application forms contain statements that all qualifications have been met, school officials may verify the information and deliberate misrepresentation may subject the applicant to prosecution.

If a family member becomes unemployed or family size changes, a family may contact the school district for a new application. Persons receiving some aid must notify the school when the household income increases by more than $50 per month or when household size decreases.

Families with foster children also may qualify, in certain cases. Foster parents wishing to apply for free or reduced price meals should contact the applicable school.

The schools will not discriminate against applicants due to race, sex, color, national origin, age or handicap. Persons believing they may have been discriminated against should contact Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the school official, he may make a request either orally or in writing to the school district office for a hearing to appeal. Each school has a copy of the complete policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party.

Parochial schools participating in the free and reduced price lunch programs include St. Elizabeth, St. Margaret Mary, St. Mary-St. Mark, Sacred Heart-St. Joseph. Public schools participating are Granite City Unit 9, Madison Unit 12 and Venice Unit 3.

Louis Meek and Warren Decatur represent Rotary and David Morgan and C.A. MacMillan represent Coordinated Youth Services.

Other CAC delegates include Becky Jackson of the Granite City High School Student Council, Rose Ezell of the Business and Professional Women, John Pettis of the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council, Eric Robertson of the Optimists, the Rev. Don Pierson of the Ministerial Association, Dorothy Li-Jewski of Parents for Special Education, Miriam Ozanich of the Eastern Star and James Pennekamp of the Chamber of Commerce.

Board of Education members on the CAC are Monroe Worthen and Dewey Melton.

James Jeffries, Webster School principal, represents elementary principals and Gilbert Walmsley, GCHS principal, represents secondary school principals on the committee.

Dumont is a non-voting member, serving as the school administration's citizen liaison. Burt Hediger, secretary in the office of School Superintendent B.J. Davis and the School Board's meeting secretary, is the CAC secretary.

In its widely-talked-of report, "A Nation at Risk," the National Commission on Excellence in Education says, "We can do better, we should do better and we must do better." It attributes its confidence about the future to the "remarkable successes of American education in responding to past challenges."

"Risk" was issued April 26, and the intense public response in the ensuing six months has prompted U.S. Education Secretary Terrel Bell to hail it as a "turning point" in an era when U.S. schools face "the challenge of the post-industrial age."

The commission believes America is at risk because competitors throughout the world are "overtaking our once unchallenged lead in commerce, industry, science and technological innovation."

"The problem has many causes and dimensions. Education is only one of them. But education is the primary factor underlying our prosperity, security and civility." Dumont told the CAC in summarizing the commission's findings.

Along with beefed-up English, mathematics, science, social studies, computer science, foreign languages, fine arts, performing arts and vocational education, the commission wants upgraded textbooks, enhanced teacher preparation and pay, and a longer school year and school day.

Noting that 23 million Americans and a seventh of U.S. teenagers are functionally illiterate, the group urged that high schools and colleges adopt "more rigorous and measurable standards and higher expectations both for academic performance and for student conduct."

James B. Conant's famous 1959 study, "The American High School Today," so well defined schools' mission that it remains the shining target of educators' hopes and plans a quarter-century later.

The former Harvard president felt that, regardless of economic status, sex or geographic location, every American youth "should experience a broad and balanced education which will:

—Equip him to enter an occupation suited to his abilities, and offering reasonable opportunity for personal growth and social usefulness.

—Prepare him to assume the full responsibilities of American citizenship; give him a fair chance to exercise his right to the pursuit of happiness.

—Stimulate intellectual curiosity, engender satisfaction in intellectual achievement and cultivate the ability to think rationally.

—And help him to develop an appreciation of the ethical values which should undergird all life in a democratic society. It is the duty of a democratic society to provide opportunities for such education through its schools."

Dr. Conant favored subject groupings but no "tracks toward vocational or college preparation."

An advocate of at least 15 hours of homework each week, he felt composition should comprise half the time devoted to English. He recommended tuition-free summer school for the academically talented and for those in need of educational assistance.

The Carnegie Foundation report, "Secondary Education in America," sought to blaze a trail toward excellence.

It stressed that "a high school, to be effective, must have a clear and vital mission. Every high school should establish clearly stated goals—purposes that are widely shared by teachers, students, administrators and parents."

"School goals should focus on the mastery of language, on a core of common learning, on preparation for work and further education, and on community and civic service."

"A new student achievement and advancement test should be developed—linked to the core curriculum and to what the student has studied."

"Teachers should use a variety of teaching styles to transmit information. Students should be encouraged to actively participate."

"The class schedule should be flexible enough to permit large blocks of instructional time for certain classes. Principals and staff should have more control over their budgets, and principals should have more control in the selection and rewarding of teachers."

In conclusion, the Carnegie Foundation asserted, "Citizens, local school boards, state agencies and legislatures, and the federal government must work together to help bring excellence to the public schools."

The Granite City Citizens Advisory Committee regards excellence as an appropriate objective and views further progress as a "must," aided by the cooperation of the public, the school system and lawmakers.

It plans to explore "coping with current issues in education" at each of its remaining monthly meetings in 1983-84.

Madison County sewer board discusses hook-up of 3 homes

Members of the Madison County Board's special sanitary sewer committee discussed a plan last week night which would allow for a study into the hook-up of three homes on Old Alton Road. According to Gene Futch, sewer superintendent, if these three homes hook-up, every eligible home in the service area would be hooked on.

The board approved the "shooting of the grade" between the sewer line coming from the residents' homes to the depth of the sewer line. Futch said a good grade flow is six inches per 100 feet. He estimated that the distance between the two pipes is 150 feet and that the grade is sufficient.

Futch said the survey work will only take about a half-hour to complete.

Board Attorney Irvin C. Slate Jr. advised members to require the residents to sign an agreement that states the board is not pledging to do anything, just doing a study.

Also at the meeting, board members received an $18,294 bill from the Madison County Auditor's office for services rendered. The bill came after a study was made of the various county services by the David M. Griffith and Associates, Ltd. The study determined how much each committee used various county services and then applied a charge to them.

Board members refused to pay the bill until a full explanation of the costs is made by the auditor's office. Futch said that in the past, any office supplies, insurance or administrative services the board had used were not billed to them. He also said the bill was the first the board had heard about the study; that an explanation of the new billing procedure had never been made. The $18,294 bill reflects one year of service. "I don't know how some of these places are going to pay the costs, like the nursing home, they can barely stay in business as it is," said Morris Miles, committee chairman. "I think we should really look into this situation before we pay out this kind of money."

Seminar on floor coverings slated

The Granite City Park District is offering a free one-night seminar Wednesday dedicated to today's woman who would rather enjoy her leisure time than spend it on her hands and knees cleaning yesterday's floor coverings.

Michelle Bigham, a trained decorator and fashion coordinator, will explain new options in floor coverings to make decorating fun and easy, and also escape the drudgery of unnecessary housework.

There will be displays at the class session and many new ideas will be presented. A question and answer period will follow the presentation.

The program will be in the Harold Brown Recreation Center, Franklin and Ames avenues, from 7 until 9 p.m.

Registration may be by phone or in person at the Wilson Park Office and is necessary to make sure enough space is available.

Cruse testimonial moved back to SIUE

A testimonial dinner Thursday evening, Nov. 6, honoring Granite City Township Assessor Von Dee Cruse, has been moved back to Meridian Ballroom on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, organizers said.

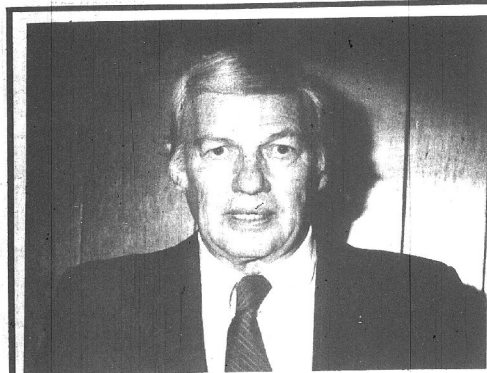

A labor dispute which had security officers conducting informational picketing at the university caused the event to be moved first to the Granite City Township Hall. However, settlement of the labor dispute has enabled the event to be moved back to the SIUE campus.

"It's roomier, more comfortable and we can serve drinks there," explained

Vasil Etimoff of the committee.

The event will begin at 6 p.m. Thursday. Tickets will be available at the door.

GC pilot died a hero in Grenada

The far-away war in Grenada suddenly came to Granite City during the weekend with the tragic news that a helicopter pilot from Granite City is believed to have been killed during the first assault on the small island.

Army Capt. Keith Lucas is dead, according to his father, who went to Fort Campbell, Ky., to trace down rumors of his son's death. What he found out was what he hoped wasn't true.

The Lucas family has not been officially notified of the death, but Lucas said an officer who was with Capt. Lucas when he died confirmed the death.

The father is a bit bitter. He said the "leak" to Cuba

24 hours prior to the invasion that it was pending allowed Cuba to send more troops onto the small island and set up "a meal chopper" to greet the incoming troops.

We will leave it to the politicians and historians to debate the merits of the invasion and any errors that may have been made in planning it.

All we know is that Keith Lucas is a hero. He died defending his country and followed the orders of his commanders, even into the ultimate sacrifice.

Our hearts go out to the family members. The death of a 26-year-old is never easy to understand.

Keith Lucas, all who knew you are proud of you. All who didn't know you should be proud of your sacrifice.

Rest in peace, Keith Lucas.

Adult supervision urged tonight

We wish all Quad-City area youngsters a safe and enjoyable Halloween night tonight and urge parents to take an active role in their children's Halloween activities to avoid the sad stories of the past.

We implore even the parents of teenagers to try and find out where the teens are going and what they will be doing. The "tricks" of overturning outhouses in the past have evolved to far more serious activities, including property damage.

We recognize that the vast majority of teens are good, well-mannered youths and have had close contact with many of these since school began, but a few troublemakers can ruin Halloween for many families.

Parents of younger children are urged to be safety minded tonight. All Halloween candy collected trick-or-treating should be inspected thoroughly and any suspect treats should be disposed of where young children cannot get to them.

Organized activities, such as the Elks Halloween parade downtown tonight, (see Page One), are especially encouraged as safe, well supervised and enjoyable way for the young to enjoy the Halloween tradition.

We wish all Quad-City area residents a safe and happy Halloween. With a little supervision from parents, it can be just that.

On church-state separation versus abortion

To the Editor:

Father Edwin Arentsen and the anti-abortionists are attempting to inflict their religious convictions on all Americans by trying to coerce the government to regulate uniquely personal parts of our lives.

I have no objection to the anti-abortionists appealing to the conscience of the individual, but when religion mixes with politics in order to achieve its goals nationally, then there should be cause for alarm.

Ireland, a predominantly Catholic country, recently made abortions illegal and wrote this into their constitution. Catholic Spain also bans abortions. Women from these countries who seek abortions must travel to countries like England, where abortions are legal. In some cases, women who have had an abortion abroad can be fined and imprisoned if the home authorities discover this.

Should Father Arentsen and the anti-abortionists convince individuals against having abortions, then more power to them. But should they force their particular religious beliefs on us all, then they are violating one of the oldest, most fundamental principles of American democracy — namely, the separation of church and state.

Ryan urges participation in the Chemical People

To the Editor:

Drug abuse and alcoholism are two of the largest and most serious problems affecting the people of this state. More than 800,000 Illinoisans — from all walks of life — suffer debilitating health effects, as a direct result of substance abuse. Substance abusers comprise our state's largest disability group.

All citizens of this state suffer indirectly. Drug abuse and alcoholism cost the nation's industries more than $50 billion each year because of on-the-job accidents and reduced worker productivity. We all pay the high cost of substance abusers' health care bill — some $125 billion annually. In addition, we, as taxpayers, must pay for increased law enforcement, correctional institutions and treatment centers.

But the greatest cost of all, human suffering and the loss of lives, is incalculable.

Substance abuse represents a special problem for our young people. According to the U.S. Surgeon General, the death rate among 16 to 24-year-olds increased by 11 percent between 1960 and 1978, despite a drop in the overall death rate. The Surgeon General attributed the increase primarily to drugs, alcohol and mental health problems. In fact, alcohol is the number one killer of people in the 16 to 24 year age group.

On Nov. 2 and 9, an informative documentary about the hazards of substance abuse, the "Chemical People," will be aired by Public Television Broadcasting stations across the country. In conjunction with the broadcasts, many communities throughout our state will be forming special task forces to devise strategies for fighting substance abuse at the community level.

The "Chemical People" was broadcast over WQED in Pittsburgh last year with the following results: 12,313 people attended town meetings, requests for drug and alcohol treatment increased dramatically and permanent substance abuse task forces were established in 112 communities.

The project worked in Pittsburgh because the community cared and supported it with enthusiasm. It can work in Illinois, too, if enough people who care are willing to demonstrate their concern through positive action.

November has been proclaimed "Drug-Free Youth Month" in Illinois. Let us begin this effort to heighten public awareness by tuning in to the "Chemical People." I encourage each and every citizen of this state to get involved. Substance abuse touches us all, so let's all pitch in and make this program a success. The rewards will be priceless. Anyone interested in more information on the "Chemical People" or any other program in our community can call the Prevention Resource Center toll-free between 9 a.m. and noon at 1-800-252-8651; your local public broadcasting television station, or the Office of the lieutenant governor at 1-800-252-5584.

Both responsible for joint accounts

Frequently a husband will wonder whether he is responsible for expenses incurred by his wife when he did not participate in the expenditure. In some situations, the parties may be contemplating a dissolution of marriage, and one spouse may be incurring substantial charges on various accounts without the knowledge of the other spouse.

It has always been the recommendation of this office that parties contemplating a dissolution of marriage immediately write to creditors and cancel charge accounts which were opened jointly. The purpose of this article, however, is to discuss what happens when the parties fail to cancel charge accounts and one spouse runs up expenses without the knowledge or consent of the other.

Illinois has a Family Expense act which provides that the expenses of a family and of the education of the children can be chargeable to both the husband and the wife, even though only one spouse incurred the expense. Therefore, under this act both the husband and wife are jointly liable for the expense of the family.

What constitutes a "family expense" has been defined by the Illinois courts in various cases. The court usually looks to whether the expenditure was incurred for the family and whether the expense was for an article which was actually used by the family.

In one Illinois case, a creditor sued both the husband and wife for the cost of a ring purchased by the wife individually. The Illinois Supreme Court found that the ring was an article worn merely for adornment and therefore did not constitute an item of family expense. In this case, the court found that the creditor could pursue sue only the wife individually and not the husband for the cost of the ring. In another case, however, the husband was found to be liable for his wife's purchase of a fur coat. This too would seem to be an article worn for mere adornment similar to the ring in the prior case, but here the court decided differently. It appears that whether or not an item which is purchased constitutes an expense of a family will be decided the Illinois Courts on a case-by-case basis.

It should be noted that if one spouse puts a notice in a local newspaper indicating that he or she will no longer be responsible for the debts of the other spouse, this will not suffice. If the husband and wife have charge accounts in both names or if the purchase is a family expense, the husband will continue to be obligated for purchases by the wife even if he has such a notice published. The courts are unwilling to impose a duty on creditors to read notices which are published in local newspapers.

Readers React

Quad-Citians were asked this week if they think trick-or-treating for youngsters should be banned. Their reactions follow:

Phyllis Moore, Madison

"No, Halloween shouldn't be banned, as long as there are responsible parents who go along with their children for a safety precaution. Why should they ban it? That's the one night of the year that is set aside for kids."

Paul Bargiel, Madison

"I don't think Halloween should be banned. I think it's a good treat for kids. Too many of our holiday traditions are getting lost as it is."

Sandy Podraza, Granite City

"I think Halloween should be under a controlled situation, like a group event. Organizations should sponsor parties for the kids, instead of just having them wandering around all night. I don't think that trick-or-treating in a group or being chaperoned by an older child is enough."

Jefferson Davis, Granite City

"Halloween is an institution, but I think for it to be safe, it should be controlled. I think candy companies should come out with a special wrapper specifically for Halloween that would be tamper-proof, just like what was done with Tylenol. This way, when the kids get home, mom and dad can go through the candy and throw away all of the fresh fruit and homemade items that are tamperable. As far as the individuals go who put things in the candy, I think if they're caught, they should be given an automatic penalty. After all, their intent was to kill or hurt someone."

Grateful for founding of GC Center locally

To the Editor:

What does it really have two important purposes.

First, as a Granite City Center and BAC board chairman, Mrs. Patricia W. Burks and Robert H. Dintelman should be recognized for working to bring Granite City Center to the Quad-Cities.

I live in Venice and the time and money I save by driving to Granite City Center allows me enough time and money to take four classes and still work full time.

Although I am only 17, I know how people take things for granted, particularly elected school boards and city councils. My father is a Venice alderman.

The second purpose of this letter is to ask all the readers of this paper to say thanks to Mrs. Burks and Mr. Dintelman by voting for them on Tuesday, Nov. 8.

In my opinion, they deserve reelection and a strong support and votes of all the voters in the entire Quad-City area. What they have done for us speaks for itself.

Urges attending Chemical People sessions

To the Editor:

What does it take to fight school-age drug and alcohol abuse — 3 You!

I hope everyone will come to the "Chemical People" town meetings Wednesday, November 2nd. The meetings for our area are at Tri-City Park Tabernacle Church, 3400 Maryville Road, at 6:30 p.m. The Granite City Army Depot at 6 p.m. and the Madison Middle School, Caine Drive and Farish Street, Madison, at 6:30 p.m.

Everyone is invited to watch a television special and share ideas about what we can do to help our kids and ourselves.

Following the telecast, a panel of local experts, including teachers, police officers, pharmacists, representatives from health organizations, students and parents of children involved in drugs and alcohol abuse will discuss the situation as it exists in the Quad-City area.

Informational tables will be set up including Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, Alanon, Alateen, Alapre-teen, Family Anonymous, as well as representatives from several rehabilitation centers in our area. The aim of the meeting is to establish a permanent task force that will take continuing action against the drug and alcohol problem in the area.

Let's pull together to make this a drug-free community again.

Flags should be at half staff in respect

To the Editor:

So many times I've wanted to express my feelings to the public about something that has been said, or done, but have always remained silent. But with the outrage I feel, I find that I cannot be quiet.

As to date about 200 young Americans gave their lives on foreign soil, that they didn't even want to be on.

Out of respect for these sons, husbands and fathers, all the American flags were asked to be lowered at half staff.

As I drive around Granite I'm glad I didn't have to sit numerous flags flying at full staff. Banks, dental office, even private homes, are just a few.

It's a very sad day when we can't take time out of our busy lives to show our respect for those who died.

I can't help but wonder if these would be different if one of those boys belong to our city.

BARB FREEMAN
Granite City

(Editor's note: Because of vandalism problems in the downtown area, many flags were installed semi-permanently at full staff, including the flag at the Press-Record. It required a full day to disconnect the flag and temporarily attach it at half staff. We notice most of the flags downtown now are at half staff.)

In opposition to breakup of surgery floor

To the Editor:

I just got out of the hospital and was on One Binney. I been going in on this floor for the last five years and I have a couple more years of plastic and reconstructive surgery to go.

The care and treatment I received on this floor is unsurpassed. Now, this last time I was in, they told me that they were moving the surgery patients to different floors.

The nurses on One Binney were specialized in this type of surgery. Now they say they're breaking up this team of doctors and nurses.

I would like to see surgery stay on One Binney since the

OR and ICU units are on this floor. There have been a couple of times I needed emergency treatment and I'm glad I didn't have to sit and wait for an elevator to come. I just got rushed into surgery.

The treatment I received on the floor and the doctors in surgery saved my life.

The atmosphere on this floor is that of a family and a team and I think this would be a great loss to the community. All I'm saying is we should keep a team like Dr. Mann and the nursing staff of One Binney somehow kept together.

City 'winterizing' sewer breaks after grant is rejected

By GEORGEANN MCCLES
of the Press-Record
With federal funding of sewer repairs again delayed and winter approaching, Granite City street crews have been busy digging trenches to winterize temporary sewer bypass lines.

The city decided to replace fire hoses, used in some spots as make-shift sewer connections, with plastic lines, after federal authorities rejected bids to make permanent repairs. In an ironic twist, three of four new street employees who had been hired to assist with sewer repairs have been digging trenches to bury the temporary plastic lines.

Superintendent of Streets Mac Warfield estimates the work will cost $10,000. Mayor Paul Schuler told aldermen last week that he has asked U.S. Rep. Melvin Price to unscramble the red tape blocking federal funds. The mayor's comments came after learning the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) had rejected a low bid, earlier approved by the city, to repair eight of the breaks. The $419,576 low bid of C. D. Peters Excavating had exceeded by almost $100,000 the federal authorities estimate of the project.

The city was to receive 75 percent funding of the FEMA estimate, but also would have sought 75 funding of the additional bid costs. The remaining 25 percent will have to come from city funds.

The city has been at constant odds with state and federal officials over repair costs. City officials maintain the local high water table increases costs here.

The eight breaks concerned are located at 1608 Lindell Blvd., 3506 Terrace Lane, 3301 Fehling Road, 1506 and 1611 East 23rd St., 12 Terrace Lane, 2300 Maryville Road and 2509 National Ave. The city has a total of 22 sewer breaks.

Aldermen immediately approved the rebidding of repairs to the eight breaks to comply with the federal request. City officials, however, are concerned a new bid will result in a higher figure.

City Engineer Monroe Brewer said although nine companies had originally picked up the plans to submit bids for the eight breaks, only two firms sent in prices. S. M. Wilson's bid $540,690 compared to the low bid of $419,576.

"We are going to talk to every contractor we can think of," Schuler said. The city engineer said the prospect of dewatering sewer line holes and the problems associated with working on private property — required to repair some breaks — has likely deterred other bidders.

About 10 private property easements will be needed for the eight breaks and about 25 other easements will be needed when additional breaks are repaired, according to Brewer. He has asked aldermen to get the 10-foot easements needed from property owners in their wards.

Earlier the council approved the purchase of a video camera to record the condition of the private yards and buildings prior to repair work. The camera also will be used to document for federal authorities any complications that would require extra funding.

The eight sewer breaks being rebid are considered the worst of the 15 currently eligible for FEMA funds. The other seven will be bid as soon as the city prepares specifications for the projects.

Those are located at 1932 and 1504 Joy, 2500 Logan and 3317 Princeton avenues. High Street, 4047 Stearns and 3200 Davis avenues.

The costs of repairing five other sewer breaks are still being reviewed by FEMA, making it impossible for the city to proceed without risking loss of federal funding. They are located at 2823 Lincoln and 2546 Boyle avenues, 2821 East 23rd St., and the 2700 block of Fifth Avenue.

The two remaining breaks at 3204 Aubrey and 3205 Roger avenues are to be repaired from a $300,000 Community Development Jobs Bill grant awarded last summer to the city. The city must begin using those funds by Dec. 1 or lose them. As a result, aldermen have approved seeking bids for the Aubrey Avenue.

The council had originally planned to use Community Development funds to act as its 25 percent funding share of the FEMA grant, but FEMA has denied the use of the Community Development funds for that purpose.

Dorothy Robinson, 29, 226 Kerr St., Venice and Kathleen Hoffsford, 205B Madison Ave., were both burglarized of their food stamps in two unrelated incidents.

Mrs. Robinson alerted Venice police last week that her vehicle's glove box had been broken into. The compartment contained $200 worth of food stamps. Her car doors had been left unlocked.

Mrs. Hoffsford told Madison police late last week that her food stamps were supposed to have been mailed to her with her check from Springfield, Ill., but they were not. She said she waited a few days for her stamps to appear, thinking maybe they were late. But when she called her case worker, she told Mrs. Hoffsford that she should have already received the stamps. by Maryville Fire department ambulance. Miss Wilson was treated for minor injuries and released to police.

Sgt. Jones told reporters he was northbound in his patrol car on Route 159 when Miss Wilson's car passed him at a relatively high rate of speed. He said his radar unit clocked her car at 56 mph in the 35-mph zone.

Jones said he turned his car around and activated the emergency red lights. Miss Wilson's car had stopped in the middle of the road near First Bank of Maryville, he said.

He had driven up behind the car, almost to a stop, when the car took off, he said. Miss Wilson's car was probably going 45 mph when the accident occurred, Jones said.

—Jones said the fire department rescue unit used emergency equipment to remove Miss Wilson's car from the road. There were no passengers in either vehicle.

A hospital spokesman said cardiopulmonary resuscitation was being performed on Miss Dielkes when she arrived at the hospital and was continued for some time, but she did not respond.

A blood sample was taken from Miss Wilson at the hospital for analysis of alcohol or drugs, Jones said.

Funeral services for Miss Dielkes were conducted Thursday in Caseyville.

4 seeking 3 Venice 4-year terms

WILBERT GLASPER

Wilbert Glasper, 35, president of the Venice School Board, is seeking a four-year term on the board in the biennial election Nov. 8.

A former school treasurer (1981-83) and former board secretary (1978-80), Glasper advanced to the presidency upon the retirement of longtime President Jack Tolliver from the board in early 1983.

Glasper and his wife, Gussie, live at 517 Fillmore Ave. with their daughter, Tisha, 11, and son, Wilbert Jr., six years old.

Glasper works as a construction electrician and is a member of International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 308 of Collinsville.

He is a 1968 graduate of Madison High School and attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for three years before being accepted for an electrician apprenticeship, which he completed in 1978.

His memberships include the American Federation of Musicians in St. Louis, the Madison County Urban League and several Masonic groups.

Glasper seeks "to do all that I can to be an effective member, including attending our local board meetings and as many meetings and panel sessions as are offered by the Illinois Association of School Boards."

"I have tried to become a knowledgeable and productive member. I have a desire to serve the children and the community, and I have a strong belief in the values of the public schools."

He has served on the Venice High School Vocational Advisory Committee. Initially appointed to the board Nov. 15, 1976, Glasper has served continuously since then, being elected to three-year terms in April 1977 and April 1980.

JERRY CICIO

Seeking a four-year term on the Venice School Board Nov. 8 is Gerald D. Cicio, 38, of Broadway, Venice.

There are four candidates for three four-year positions as well as three aspirants for two two-year board terms. Cicio, a lifelong resident of Venice, won election to a one-year term on the board in April 1977 and then a three-year term in April 1978.

In the latter election, he garnered the most votes of any candidate at the district's polling places. He resigned from the board in September 1979 and was reappointed as a member in December 1981, filling a vacancy. The selection was made by Madison County Regional Superintendent of Schools Harold E. Briggs after board members were unable to reach agreement on who to appoint.

Born in Venice and a graduate of Venice High School, Cicio is a veteran member of the Venice Volunteer Fire Department, having joined the department in 1965. He has been active in the Booster Club and is a member of St. Mark's Catholic Church.

As a member of Sheet Metal Workers Union Local 36, he performs heating and air-conditioning work.

Cicio is married and has a son, Jerry. He initially ran for the Venice Board of Education in 1976. The candidate advocates expanded parent-student involvement.

PROBATION ON DRUG SUBSTANCE DELIVERY

Danny R. Huebner, 21, of 2215 Iowa St. has been placed on a year of probation, fined $20 and ordered to make restitution of a $20 by Circuit Judge P.J. O'Neill for delivering a controlled drug substance Feb. 1. The defendant pleaded guilty Sept. 18.

O'Neill on Sept. 14 dismissed a related Feb. 1 drug delivery allegation that had been filed against Huebner June 23.

PERCY GUEST

Percy Guest, a member of the Venice Board of Education, is a candidate on Tuesday, Nov. 8, in the Venice School District Three election.

He and two other incumbents, Wilbert Glasper and Jerry Cicio, and a fourth candidate, Mrs. Patricia King, are competing for three four-year board terms. Guest, 24, of Eagle Park Acres was elected to a school board position in November 1981 for a one-year term. That term was extended to two years by the state election consolidation law.

He became a Venice school pupil starting with the third grade. A graduate of Venice High School, he also is a graduate of the Bailey Technical School in St. Louis.

Active as a member of the road and highway maintenance staff of Venice Township, Guest was one of those instrumental in formation of the Eagle Park Volunteer Fire Department and has served as its chief maintenance officer.

Guest is a member of the Lovejoy Pentecostal Temple in Brooklyn and has served as a director of the Eagle Park Action Committee.

Although relatively young in age, he believes he and the district benefit from his two years of experience as one of the seven persons determining school policies and employing the faculty, administration and support staff.

TWO GET PROBATION IN BURGLARY CASE

Robert Fetter and Timothy Miller have been placed on two-year probation by Circuit Judge Philip Rarick for a burglary committed on Sept. 15. The charges were filed the same day.

Guilty pleas were submitted at the Madison County Courthouse Sept. 22 by Fetter, of 1715 Garfield Ave., and Miller, of 3704 Nameoki Road.

PATRICIA KING

Venice Board of Education candidates Nov. 8 for four-year terms include Mrs. Patricia A. King, 528 Washington Ave., a daughter-in-law of the late Venice Alderman Oscar King.

She and her husband, Richard King, are the parents of four children who attend Venice public schools. They are Richard Jr., 18, Shawnee, 14, Andrea, 10, and Ryan, eight years old.

Mrs. King works as a checker at Schermer's Supermarket in Madison.

She is active in the First Church of God on Bissell Street and in the People's Organization to Benefit the Children of Venice.

She attended Madison schools, including Madison High School.

Mrs. King believes "Community Unit District Three could benefit from board participation by a parent such as herself. She thinks there is a need for 'better representation for the children.'"

There is no woman from the incorporated area of the district serving on the school board at present, she points out.

She is hopeful that her involvement in decision-making and policy-setting could help bring about a variety of improvements in school services.

As a working mother, she is aware of students' diverse needs. Mrs. King told the Press-Record she favors increased pupil activities and an expanded role for parents and teachers.

The candidate is convinced that the best possible education is essential for Venice youngsters in an increasingly complex world.

GC robbery and pursuit

An armed robbery in which Michael Baggot was the victim at 10 p.m. Sunday was followed by high-speed pursuit of the suspects' auto. Two persons were being questioned by Granite City police this morning, and other aspects of the investigation were continuing.

Police followed the escape vehicle south on Edwardsville Road in Granite City, through Madison, and then along Illinois Route 203 to Interstate 70, where the auto was abandoned and the occupants fled. The car was towed to Granite City.

After the robbery had occurred at a pay telephone booth near the Kroger store in the Nameoki Village Shopping Center on Nameoki Road, Granite City police took into custody a man suspected of possible involvement. He was lodged overnight.

At 1:10 a.m. today, an Illinois state trooper apprehended two other men for investigation in connection with the robbery. One of these men later was released, and the second was detained as a fugitive from a Feb. 2, 1983, warrant alleging retail theft in Granite City.

Robbery suspects include four men, two of whom remained in the front seat of an auto while the other two approached Baggot.

The victim, who resides at 2650 Edison Ave., was seated in his car in between attempts to complete a telephone call from the pay booth on the shopping center parking lot.

When a man approached him and asked for the correct time, Baggot pointed to a lighted time sign at the nearby American Heritage Bank.

A second man arrived and used a small-caliber handgun to strike Baggot on the head, inflicting a small cut on the upper part of the left ear.

He was asked for money and said he had none. One of the robbers then reached into Baggot's right trousers pocket and extracted a $10 bill.

The pair entered a maroon Pontiac Bonneville which headed south on the parking lot. Police were notified.

The bandit armed with the handgun was about 25 years old, 5-7, stocky build, short Afro hair style, thick neck, wearing a black cloth jacket. His companion was about 21, thinner, slightly taller, wearing a dark double-breasted blazer, possibly corduroy.

No description was given of the two men in the getaway car.

Alleged robber returns to GC

An informational document alleging robbery was issued Friday against Ronald A. Faupel, 43, of Jennings, Mo., by the Madison County state's attorney's office police in connection with the March 1 robbery of Green's Confectionary, 2500 Denver Ave.

Faupel was taken into custody when he returned to the same store and was recognized at 9:15 p.m. Thursday, reports said.

On March 1, a man holding his right hand in his jacket pocket as if he had a weapon allegedly robbed the store and fled on foot. A weapon was never seen at the time of the incident, it was noted.

Faupel was arraigned on the robbery charge at 4:40 p.m. Friday in the Granite City court and bond was set at $5,000 cash. A mittimus was issued and he was transferred Saturday to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

371 traffic tickets given

Don't stop, don't coast through a speed, and don't fail to obtain a Granite City license sticker. Police are continuing to take a stern attitude toward traffic and auto offenses.

A tally for the last five days, covering the 24 hours ending at 7 a.m., shows 98 tickets were issued Thursday, 55 on Friday, 140 during the weekend and 78 today, a five-day total of 371.

It was estimated that more than 150 of the arrests were for exceeding the speed limit and that more than 100 related to non-display of yearly city stickers on car windows.

Today's 24-hour tally of 78 arrests consisted of 35 speeding violations, 34 city license charges, three in stances of red traffic lights being disobeyed, two invalid auto registrations and one charge each of reckless driving, violating a driving instruction permit, operating a car while one's license is suspended, and driving with an improper muffler.

BEATEN BY TWO MEN

Lured to another apartment to help repair a lamp last week, Phillip Parker, 1433 Madison Ave., was attacked by two men. Struck with a chair, kicked in the face and hit several times with fists, Parker suffered nose bleeding, cuts about the right side of the jaw and an apparent left wrist fracture. An investigation is being made.

Jury frees Pates in 27 deaths

Charged with murder in the deaths of 27 fellow Biloxi, Miss., jail inmates after a Nov. 8, 1982, riot, Robert E. Pates, 31, Granite City, was acquitted by a jury Saturday evening.

The trial took place in a Harrison County, Miss., circuit court. The verdict of innocent was returned after five hours of deliberation and Pates then was released, leaving with his mother, Ann.

Treated at various times in the past for emotional problems, Pates had been arrested in Biloxi for allegedly being drunk. He was placed in a cell.

When the jail caught fire, killing 27 and causing toxic fumes that injured 61 others, he was blamed for lighting a cigarette. Those who were injured included firefighters and jailers.

Police seek binding arbitration

By GEORGEANN MCGEE of the Press-Record

The Granite City police union is requesting that the city enter into binding arbitration to resolve terms of the union's 1983-84 working agreement.

Most city employees received no wage increases last year and the city is not prepared to give raises again this year.

Detective Sgt. Kerry Pomeroy, union president, sent the request for arbitration in a letter dated Oct. 26 to Mayor Paul Schuler, aldermen and the city's negotiations committee.

"As negotiations between the city and Local 1347 AFSCME (American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees) have reached an impasse," Pomeroy stated, "we, therefore, request the city enter into binding arbitration in an effort to resolve the issues yet unsettled."

(Police officers have issued 371 traffic tickets in the last five days in a speeding and traffic offense crackdown that police officials say is unrelated to the agreement dispute.)

Both police and fire union officials are objecting to the intentions of the aldermen to negotiate only no-cost items this year. Working agreements with the two unions ended April 30, but union members will continue to work under the terms of their 1982-83 agreements.

James Strack, union president for the firefighters Local 235, said the union currently is checking into binding arbitration procedures for the fire department.

The union is not ready, however, to request such action.

This morning, Strack said, the firefighters attend to watch closely the action taken by the police department. "We're trying to stick with what the police are doing," he said.

Fire and police union officials have conducted one joint meeting on negotiations and Strack has discussed the situation with Pomeroy several times.

Strack said the city's intention not to negotiate cost-related items, "just about shuts it (talks) all off." He called the position taken by the city unfair.

Efforts to reach an agreement with the city were unsuccessful. Ward Alderman Woodrow Moad, chairman of the council's negotiating committee, was unsuccessful in this morning. Earlier, Moad said the city did not have the money to pay salary increases and that the aldermen had instructed him not to negotiate any items in union agreements that would mean additional costs to the city.

Safety bags for trick-or-treat distributed

The children of Granite City Park District are being provided with an extra measure of safety this Halloween.

Each child at school will be given a special safety trick-or-treat bag, which has been provided through Sampling Corp. of America or Crest and Nutra-Sweet companies, in the interest of safety for children.

The plastic bags include safety rules and are printed on both sides with a special fluorescent ink.

A child carrying a bag will be highly visible to motorists because of the bright reflection of the color. This is especially important at dusk, which is a time of day when visibility is generally poor.

Also, each child will get a large safety patch with similar coloring and adhesive, to be worn on the backs of their outer garments or costumes for additional visibility to motorists.

Posters for bulletin boards in participating schools or recreation and park facilities serve as a further reminder of the need to be extra cautious during the Halloween period. The program is being distributed. "Not to encourage tricking-or-treating," rather, it acknowledges that this practice, for the most part, already exists and children would benefit from an effort to make their celebration experiences safer, a spokesman said.

MAN IS CHARGED ON FIVE COUNTS

Jerry Louis Belford, 29, 114 Garesche Homes, Madison, was arrested by Venice police on last week and charged on five different counts, including obstructing traffic, careless driving, illegal transportation of liquor, unlawful use of a weapon and failure to use a firearm owner's identification (FOID) card.

Belford allegedly was observed blocking traffic on Douglas Avenue and was asked to move his car. When the reporting officer returned, Belford had still not moved his vehicle. At that time he was placed under arrest, police said.

Belford allegedly had a .357-magnum handgun, an open can of beer and an open bottle of whiskey in his car.

Fellow workers save man buried in cave-in

A 24-year-old Quad-City man may owe his life to the rescue efforts of his fellow workers who dug him out of a collapsed ditch near Glen Carbon last week.

Lennie Schaeffer is an employee of a Madison construction firm which was digging a ditch to find a tap and connect several Glen Carbon homes onto the village's sewer system. The ditch collapsed, completely burying the local man about 10 feet below ground level.

Emergency crews were summoned, but Schaeffer's fellow workers went to work immediately, trying to find Schaeffer's head and get precious air to him. Backhoe operator Mark Griffith was credited with carefully removing the top layer of dirt and enabling other workers to uncover Schaeffer's head. He was conscious and resumed breathing immediately.

Rescue workers from the Edwardsville and Glen Carbon fire departments joined the rescue effort, which required more than a half hour to completely unbury the trapped worker.

Schaeffer was taken to Oliver C. Anderson Hospital in Maryville with difficulty breathing and pains in his chest and left leg, but he was released after emergency room treatment.

Lawsuit filed after suicide in GC jail

The widow of a man who hung himself in the Granite City Jail Nov. 3, 1981, has filed a lawsuit against Granite City and five police officers in connection with the death.

The six-count lawsuit, filed in Madison County Circuit Court by attorney Bert Eide of Clayton, Mo., on behalf of the survivors of the late Stephen W. Harris, 32, of Granite City, seeks in excess of $15,000 on each count.

Defendants are the city, Lt. George Gallas, Lt. James Lengyel, Sgt. Glenn Wright and Officers Robert Knezevich and Walter Milton Sr.

The suit was filed by Suzanne Harris, the widow, on behalf of her daughter, 10-year-old Jennifer S. Harris.

The lawsuit alleges that Mr. Harris was intoxicated and had suicidal tendencies, but police did not adequately protect him from himself. He hung himself with his shirt after being charged with driving without a license and failure to give information after an accident.

No date has been set for hearing the case.

Police dispute at SIUE settled

An agreement has been reached between Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and the Teamsters, Chauffeurs, and Helpers Local Union 525 representing the union membership of the University Police Department. The agreement offered by the university was ratified by the membership in a meeting last week. The accepted agreement was unchanged from the university's offer of Oct. 14.

Informational pickets established Sept. 19 by the union at various locations on campus roads have been withdrawn.

The agreement which will run from July 1, 1983, through Aug. 31, 1984, provides for a 4.5 percent increase in the hourly wage rate. Earl Beard, director of University Personnel Services, said this was the rate of salary increase funding available to faculty, professional staff and open range civil service employees of the University.

Beard said other features of the agreement pertaining to training incentives will be effective as of Sept. 1, 1983, and will also continue in effect through Aug. 31, 1984.

Additionally, there is a provision in the contract for the promotion of officers of 17 or more years of service to senior patrol officers, the personnel services director said. Those who qualify will receive a two percent increase in the base pay rate in recognition of such promotion.

Beard added that the contract language also was modified concerning the scheduling of vacation and required training.

GC Council briefs

Additional Granite City Council actions and discussions last week included the following:

FIREFIGHTER ROBERT BELL will assume duties as fire captain and Edward Hagnauer will be promoted to fire engineer effective Nov. 1. According to Weldon Burch, chairman of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, the appointments were needed due to the promotion of a former captain Joe Holder to assistant fire chief.

The railroad CROSSING AT 20TH AND 21ST STREETS will be alternately closed for three weeks each way to perform roadwork in preparation for a Granite City Steel Division slag trucks crossing. Aldermen approved the request, which included maintaining barricades to direct traffic to other routes towards Madison Avenue or Edwardsville Road.

The POLICE DEPARTMENT was complimented by Fifth Ward Alderman Jake Vardanian for the number of traffic tickets issued during the past several days. Vardanian said he had been receiving several complaints by residents in his ward about speeding vehicles, particularly around Tri-City Park and West Granite.

The council received a request by the COALITION FOR POLITICAL HONESTY to place an advisory referendum on the Taxpayer Relief Act on the March 20 primary ballot. The act is a legislative act, House Bill 1786, which would cut the state's utility tax on consumers in half. The coalition estimates the act would provide $300 in tax relief to consumers and businesses.

The city has been named in a MADISON COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT COMPLAINT filed by Glen A. Simpson concerning the Oct. 18, 1981, car accident at Nameoki Road and Garfield Avenue, where Gregory Ballew, 20, was fatally injured. Simpson, a passenger in the Ballew vehicle, is asking the city to pay $15,000 for its alleged failure to enforce an ordinance prohibiting the planting of trees or shrubs less than three feet from the outer line of the sidewalk and less than 25 feet from any cross street or intersecting street.

Madison man robbed, struck with shotgun

Larry Donnell Wimberly, 33, Grenzer Homes, Madison, was robbed and hit over the head by a man carrying a saved-off shotgun last week.

Wimberly was walking on Washington Avenue when a car with Missouri license plates stopped and asked him for directions to West Madison. The vehicle then started pulling away and was put in reverse and

Drivers report pellets fired

Three motorists driving north on Nameoki Road between 1:15 p.m. and 2:45 p.m. Monday reported having windows on their vehicles shattered by pellets, believed to have been fired from the 2800 block of the Kirkpatrick Homes.

Gieve Wright, 2408 Angela Drive, said a car window was shot out on the driver's side and a piece of glass caused a minor cut to his left arm.

John Rippey, 3030 Circle Drive, said both left windows on his auto were shattered while driving in that area, and Doug Frech, 26 Parktowne West, reported the same type of incident, saying that particles of glass struck his head.

Police are continuing to investigate these and similar complaints, reports said.

struck the victim, knocking him to the ground. The passenger of the car got out and allegedly struck the victim on the back of the head with a saved-off shotgun and then took his wallet from his back pocket and tore a necklace from Wimberly's neck. Wimberly stated the robber was mad because he only had $3.20 in his wallet. The robber threatened to kill him, but the shotgun jammed. The robber then got back into the car and left. Wimberly was treated at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

License of SIUE doctor suspended

The medical license of Frank E. Woodson, Health Service representative for Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, has been suspended by the Department of Registration and Education for 30 days and he has been placed on probation for two years.

In 1978, his license as physician and surgeon had been placed on probation and his controlled substance license was suspended by the department.

It was alleged by the department that Woodson violated the terms of his probation by continuing to prescribe controlled substance without authority.

Zoning injunction denied

Madison County Associate Judge Lola P. Maddox has dismissed an injunction request intended to force Granite City to issue a business license for an auto body repair shop at 2701 Pontoon Road.

The injunction was filed on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Kibort, who are purchasing the Pontoon property to operate both a floral shop and auto body shop.

The Kieberts have 21 days to file another petition to protest the city's action not to issue the license.

The business license had, at first, not been given to the couple, pending a decision by aldermen on the proper zoning classification for auto body repair shops, which had not been covered by the city's Zoning Ordinance.

Last week, the council voted to require M-1 (light industrial zoning) for auto body shop locations. The Kieberts' property is located in a C-5 (highway commercial) zone.

Seventh Ward Aldermen Michael Modrusic and Paul Ray Bowler, who had fought against the auto body shop moving into their ward, were both summoned to appear at the Tuesday hearing. Also representing the city were City Clerk Robert W. Stevens, City Building Inspector Michael DeRuntz and City Attorney John Papa.

According to the injunction filed by Attorney Leon

G. Scroggins, the city has licensed similar businesses to operate in areas more restricted than the Kieberts' C-5 property. The injunction terms the M-1 zoning decision by the council, "An attempt by the city to zone the property of the plaintiffs after-the-fact."

The petition claimed the Kieberts would "suffer irreparable and immediate damage" as a result of the denied business license.

MacArthur loses command
Gen. MacArthur was relieved of his commands in Korea and Japan on April 11, 1951, because of his differences with the Truman administration.

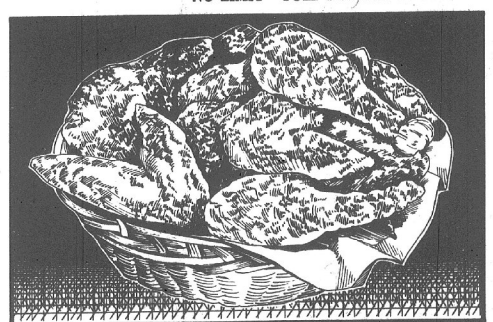

ARREST FOLLOWS TRAFFIC STOP

Advised that a car allegedly wanted for speeding was southbound on Madison Avenue and had turned off onto Iowa Street last week, an officer halted the vehicle at Nameoki Road and Jill Avenue.

The driver, David W. Gaines, 24, of 3332 Palmer Ave., was told to sit in the rear seat of his own vehicle, but allegedly came to the squad car, argued about the speeding charge and became angry, it was alleged. While being escorted to his car, Gaines allegedly jerked his arm up, tried to pull away from the officer and refused to enter the car.

Gaines was charged in a city complaint with assault, a stop sign violation and speeding. He was released at noon Wednesday after posting a $52 cash bond.

World Community Day

The Quad-City Area Church Women United will celebrate annual World Community Day on Friday, Nov. 4th, at 7:15 p.m. at Trinity United Methodist Church, 25th and Henry streets.

This year's celebration was prepared by the women of Australia and grows out of relationships developed during the Christian Cause tour to the Pacific in 1979, and the participation of Australian women in a return visit to the U.S.A. to attend the 1980 Ecumenical Assembly of Church Women United.

The program entitled "No Longer Strangers" will focus on the close parallels in the treatment and current situations in our countries, especially the diverse groups that make up the program.

The program theme will be developed through the telling of stories of pioneer Australian women, some contemporary Australian writings and a choir of "voices of diversity" reflecting common experiences of women of Australia and America.

The program of the indigenous peoples of both countries - the Aborigines of Australia and the native Americans in the U.S.A. - at the time of settlement and throughout subsequent history - has been remarkably similar. Both peoples continue to seek justice, recognition of their land rights, and the value of their cultures and traditions, which include deep respect for the earth. In both countries many immigrants and refugees continue to arrive and seek a place in the society, creating ever more diverse populations.

P.E.O. Chapters hear convention reports

A joint meeting of Chapter KU and Chapter IT of the P.E.O. Sisterhood was held at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church for the purpose of hearing details of the International P.E.O. Convention held in Houston, Texas, earlier this month.

Mrs. James (Linn) Comer of Chapter LS, Edwardsville, reviewed convention business noting there were 1,200 delegates representing 225,000 P.E.O. members in the United States and Canada. She announced that an Olney, Ill. resident, Lucille H. Smith, was elected as international president.

The sisterhood is a philanthropic organization whose interests are directed to education for women. Its international projects include the P.E.O. Educational Fund, Casey Junior College for Women, the International Peace Scholarship Fund and the Program for Continuing Education.

P.E.O. Sisterhood was founded as a college sorority at Iowa Wesleyan College at Mount Pleasant, Iowa, in 1869. Today it is an international community organization with 5,156 chapters.

Harmony Class meets

Mrs. Ruby Corbitt offered the opening prayer and Charles Youngs presented the devotions, entitled "Historic Lessons" at the monthly meeting of Harmony Class of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. President Cleveland Cox conducted the session in Wesley Hall, during the weekend. Officer reports were given and Mrs. Alice Cruse reported sending 16 cards to members during the month.

Various projects were discussed and committees were organized to continue with plans for the year.

Immediately following the meeting, the class enjoyed a Halloween party hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Homer Huber and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hacke.

The tables were decorated with pumpkins, gourds and corn and the favors were small ghosts. Games were played during the social hour.

and prizes awarded to the winners.

Refreshments were served to 39 members and three guests, Irene Kenner, Virgil Morris and Harold Schnell.

Warriors shut out Shells; meet Kahoks Tuesday

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — In close soccer games, a knowledgeable coach can often mean the difference in the final outcome. Granite City High School Coach Gene Baker supported that premise Saturday night in first-round action of the Edwardsville Sectional as he reached deep into his bag of tricks and pulled out what can only be called "an unconventional penalty kick score."

The penalty kick resulted in the first of two Granite City goals of the evening, but it was all the Warriors needed as they went on to defeat the Shells 2-0.

For the resurging Warriors, it's their second shutout of the post season and improves their record to 15-3-2. After Saturday's game the Shells had an identical record.

The game-winning goal, which came at 35:33, was set up as the Shells were penalized for tripping Warrior forward Scott Grote.

Granite City's Troy Moore, who had lined up to take the kick, tapped the ball — perhaps a yard — before defenseman Matt Sheridan moved up and blasted the shot past Roxana's Brian Kastings.

"It was something we've practiced this week," Baker said describing the penalty kick. "We wanted to try and commit their goalie (towards making a move). He's an excellent goalkeeper, a fine athlete."

The Warrior goal, late in the first half, came at an unlikely time for Granite City — after it had so clearly dominated earlier play.

The manner in which the Warriors dominated the first 23 minutes of play was remarkable. It was by far Granite City's fiercest attack thus far this year on an opponent's goal.

Unfortunately, the Warriors were unable to reap the benefits of their barrage as Roxana and Kastings weathered the attack.

As the first half waned, so did Granite City's domination. By the time the Warriors scored, the Shells were playing Granite City nearly even.

"Once our kids realized they could play with Granite City, we began to play like I knew we were capable," said Shell's Coach Mark Schaefer.

"Coming in here we felt like we could beat Granite City. Take away that first quarter, and I think we played them pretty even," Scroggins said.

Roxana's first-round sectional loss was a disappointing one for the Shells, Scroggins said. But, it capped a fine season.

"When you consider where we've been, this is a tremendous moment for Roxana soccer," Scroggins said. "I was a little disappointed in the way the game ended, though."

By that the Shell's coach was referring to more than the 2-0 loss — he was also meant the manner in which the game deteriorated and the issuing of yellow and red cards to his athletes.

Granite City
Warriors

"I really hated to see the game deteriorate that way. I think you can attribute that to some overaggressive backs and forwards," Scroggins said.

The Shells were issued three yellow cards and a red card, all in the fourth quarter. At 62:31, forward Dean Kastings was tagged with a yellow card for delay of game.

Thirteen minutes later, Dean Kastings was issued a red card for pushing and was ejected from the game.

The Shells' second yellow card came just 15 seconds later as back Rob Frazier was carded for tripping.

Approximately two minutes later, Roxana picked up its third yellow card of the evening as back Steve Jones was carded also for tripping.

The Shells weren't the only ones carded, however. In the waning moments of the game, Warrior Scott Blason was issued a yellow card for tripping.

Granite City's other yellow card came much earlier in the game, when Granite City was pressuring for an early goal.

Granite City's other yellow card came much earlier in the game, when Granite City was pressuring for an early goal.

It was just such a time in the fourth quarter when the Warriors were pressuring for a goal — that they picked up an insurance goal.

At 63:57, the Shells cleared the ball to the right wing, away from their goal. At first there seemed to some question by referees whether the ensuing play was to be a sideline throw-in or a corner kick. Those advocating the corner kick prevailed.

Granite Cityans big part of Bronze Boot game

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

ST. LOUIS — Although the statistics for Friday's 13th Annual Bronze Boot soccer match at Busch Stadium between St. Louis University and Southern Illinois University were nearly even, the scoreboard revealed a different story — a 3-1 victory for the Billikens.

Fernandez

Trittschuh

Billiken sophomore Tom Hayes, later named the game's most valuable player, bolstered St. Louis University's attack with two goals to lift the Billikens to their seventh victory, against five losses in the series.

Although the east vs. west game has traditionally been played by St. Louis athletes, this season things were different.

This year's Bronze Boot game featured it's share of Illinois athletes, and in particular two Granite City athletes.

It's the first time in the history of the Boot series that two athletes from Illinois — and greater yet Granite City — have competed in the annual prestigious soccer event.

From Granite City, representing the Billikens is junior midfielder Dave Fernandez, or Fern as he's known by many, is a product of Granite City High School South's soccer program. A two-time Parade Magazine prep All American, Fernandez led Granite City South to the Illinois State High School soccer championships four consecutive years, and was named All-State three years.

On the other side of the field Friday was Steve Trittschuh, a freshman defender for the Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Trittschuh, or Eaver as his is known by many, is a 1983 graduate of Granite City North High School and was twice named to the Illinois All-State team.

Fernandez, who played the whole game for the Billikens at midfield, is an integral part of St. Louis University's game. The brief dosiers in the media guides call Fernandez, "the Billikens' field general" and "the most highly skilled Billiken."

Hayes may have been selected the game's MVP, but according to St. Louis University Coach Joe Clark, Fernandez is the most important Billiken on the field.

"Dave's one of our best players," Clark began. "For us to do well Fernandez has to touch the ball a lot. We have to pass to him 30 times a game," Clark said. "He's probably the best individually skilled player we have."

Last season Fernandez moved from forward to midfield. The change of position has doubled Fernandez's goal output from his first year in 1981. Although, Fernandez has given up his forward position to players like Hayes, he's happy playing midfield.

"I'm playing for the team," Fernandez said. "If I can better serve the team playing midfield that's where I'll play. It's my job to compliment guys like Hayes and (sophomore Steve) Maurer."

The Bills appear to be on a roll and Friday's game was a confidence builder for Fernandez and the rest of the Billikens.

"Right now, we're playing our kind of game," Fernandez said. "We're on a roll, a winning streak. I think we're playing our game right now," Fernandez said.

Things were not as positive last year for the Billikens, however. Last year the Billikens finished the season 9-7-2, their worst finish in several years.

Similarly, that seems to be the way the Cougars are going this year. Now 6-6-2, the Cougars face the possibility of not qualifying for the NCAA tournament.

"We were outplaying them for about 20 minutes," SIUE Coach Bob Guelker said. "The difference was we couldn't put the ball in and they could," Guelker said.

As for the Trittschuh, Guelker said the former standout should figure prominently in the Cougar's future.

As for Eaver, his first Bronze Boot game was an experience he'll always remember.

"The game was great. It's pretty special playing here in Busch Stadium in front of a crowd like this," Trittschuh said.

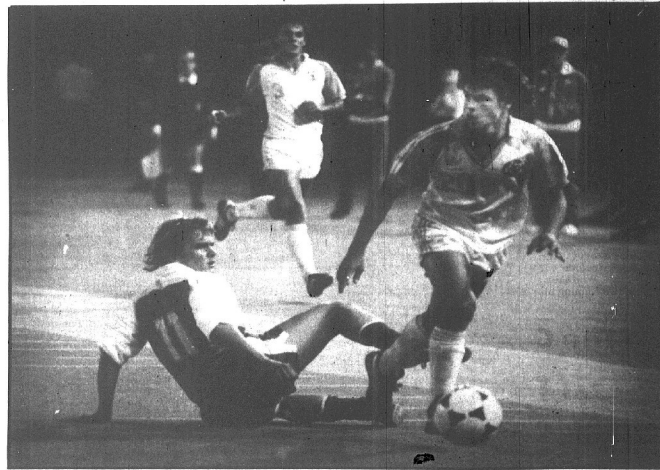

"I'm playing as much as I can hope to play right now," said the freshman defender. "I'm happy with the time I'm getting in."

Trittschuh played the entire second half.

St. Louis University took an early lead, just 4:54 into the first half when Hayes pierced the Cougar defense after taking a pass from Dan Meagher. The relentless Billiken offense set up the goal.

About 24 minutes later SIUE tied the game as Dan Malloy, a junior forward for the Cougars, slipped the pass from Bill Stallings.

Although the Billikens had jumped to an early lead, the equalizing goal appearing to be just what SIUE needed to get its offense moving. Then just as quick as the Cougars began to click, SLU scored again.

The Billikens travel to Evansville, Ind., to take on the Purple Aces this Friday, Nov. 4. Action begins at 7:30 p.m.

The Friday the Cougars will also be in action as they host Air Force at 7:30 p.m. It's SIUE's Homecoming.

To Protect Waterfowl Horseshoe part of shot study

SPRINGFIELD — The Department of Conservation is sponsoring a voluntary steel shot program at two popular waterfowl hunting areas this season, according to Department of Conservation Chief Waterfowl Biologist Dennis Thornburg.

Thornburg said, "The new voluntary approach is an experiment," he said. "We want to see if we can't achieve our main objective of limiting or eradicating lead poisoning without alienating hunters by mandating steel shot."

Thornburg added, "I believe the vast majority of hunters will participate if they know the facts," he said. "Conservation estimates indicate that lead shot poisoning kills two to three percent of the fall flight each year across the nation. That is approximately two million waterfowl.

"We have to communicate to the Illinois hunter that by using steel shot he is helping protect a natural resource in which he has a vested interest," Thornburg said.

"We decided that the volunteer concept was worth trying when a recent DOC survey revealed that 52 percent of hunters would participate, and another 20 percent were undecided.

"An unprecedented 22 percent of the mallards harvested on this area in 1982 contained ingested shot, and a die-off of approximately 400 to 500 ducks occurred in February 1981," Thornburg said.

"Because Horseshoe Lake is relatively small, and hunting there regulated with a check station, the pilot volunteer project should be fairly easy to implement.

Thornburg explained that DOC will post both areas with numerous notices reminding hunters about the volunteer program. He also said that efforts are being made to encourage sporting goods stores to stock more steel shot, and reduce the price as much as possible.

"Waterfowl biologists will judge the effectiveness of the volunteer program in several different ways, according to Thornburg. Gizzards from birds shot on the two areas will be examined for ingested shot, and blood samples will be collected from captured birds to detect signs of poisoning.

DOC will post both areas with numerous notices reminding hunters about the volunteer program. He also said that efforts are being made to encourage sporting goods stores to stock more steel shot, and reduce the price as much as possible.

Bronze Boot: 13 years of great soccer

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

ST. LOUIS — A flood of brilliant memories of past Bronze Boot soccer games hit my heart there last Friday night as the current players from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and St. Louis University teams warmed up before the kickoff of the 13th annual classic between these two collegiate giants of the sport.

Just in case you haven't already heard, the Bills won the hard-fought game, 3-1. But I must confess that I wasn't moved by the game's outcome as I had been down through the past 13 years.

First off, even a victory for the struggling Cougars of SIUE would have to be a very probably wouldn't have won them an "at large" berth in the N.C.A.A. Midwest Regional division I tournament.

It will be the first in Guelker's long and illustrious college soccer coaching career that a team of his, either at St. Louis or at SIUE, has failed to qualify for a post-season tournament. Or, in nearly a quarter of a century.

I was sad for Guelker, but before the game started and during the fierce play during the game, my mind constantly flashed back to other Bronze Boot games, in which the outcome was crucial to the two teams' future that season.

Oddly enough, the most bitter game, for me and thousands of SIUE fans, was in the infamous 3-1 loss suffered by the Cougars on a brilliantly lit Sunday afternoon when a pair of scintillating goals by Chris Carezza were not allowed by an official who made the calls ... both of them ... from way out of position at the midfield when the two linemen, right on top of the play signaled, on each, that Carezza was on-side.

And, adding a touch of sadness to my memory of those two goals not being allowed, was that Friday night the man who made those two wrong calls was honored at halftime for his contributions to St. Louis area soccer, a great official, Larry King.

There are literally hundreds of great players from both sides who made the game outstanding for me: in this opus, I'll be kept to not more than ten ... and, because I'll always be a Cougar, they'll be about SIUE's start.

Probably the greatest single scoring show was put on by Greg Villa who literally beat the Bills by himself on two of the most amazing individual goals ever posted in the Bronze Boot classic, or in any other soccer game I've ever witnessed whether or not posted at Cougar Field or in the films of "Soccer Made in Germany." Villa, who sadly enough, hasn't lived up to his great promise during his pro career, was that night just great.

Earning a berth in my rankings of individual performances by SIUE soccer stars would have to be the play of three Cacciatore brothers: Steve, Chris and Jeff; loving them all, I'm not about to make a choice between them.

Same thing with the Mallory brothers and, of course, it was Dan's great performance last year which gave the Cougars the victory.

Dan Ebert chose his sophomore year to make his greatest effort in the classic, although I'm sure there are those who'll disagree with this judgement. It's true that he didn't have a bad Bronze Boot game.

The Twelman Brothers, too, Tom, Tim and Mike earned themselves places of honors in my memory. The name of Greg (the Face) Makowski and his great and reckless play was terrific ... he starred both on defense and offense. And, talking about defense, midfielder play, Mark Moran can't be forgotten. Defensively, too, my favorite amongst many, was Mike Smallwood, who was never a "company man" and never got the recognition his play deserved.

Back there, too, in the defense trenches, was Tommy Henson, who was so great he made it look easy. And, in conclusion but with an advance acknowledgment that I've left out some players who should have been mentioned. One can't leave out Tim Holstein, a standout winger who never stopped running from the beginning of the game to the end and scored a great many key goals.

Blue Devils spoil Warrior Homecoming; win 20-0

By ROGER KRAMER

of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Confidence is always a valuable asset for any football coach or any football team. Northwest (St. Louis) High School football coach Harry Walker had plenty of it Friday.

Walker was confident Northwest's defense could stop the Granite City Warriors, even on the Warriors' homecoming night. Northwest, a member of the powerful Public High League, defeated the Warriors 20-0 in a non-conference football game.

"I have a pretty good defense, and I thought we could stop them," Walker said.

The Blue Devil defense did stop Granite City. Even though Granite City gained 122 yards with the pass, the Warriors lost 44 yards on the ground. Northwest sacked quarterbacks Shane Cole and Henry Brown a total of 84 yards. That didn't include a 13-yard sack of punter Mark Whitaker and losses of 15 yards on two running plays.

"We just weren't executing this week," said Warrior Coach Tom Wyrostek. "We were playing good football until the end of the second quarter, and we went downhill from there. The Warriors were playing so well in the first half that they could have and probably should have been ahead at halftime. In fact, Granite City was a yard away from tying and perhaps taking the lead at halftime."

Northwest ate up most of the first quarter to score its first touchdown. Then the Blue Devils' defense took charge and started the sack attack. Even though Cole was sacked seven times in the quarter, one mistake nearly nullified the defensive effort.

Northwest punter Virgil Smith shanked a 10-yard punt from the Blue Devil's 20-yard line with 2:25 to go in the quarter. After an incomplete pass, Cole completed one to Tom Adamitis for 16 yards, another to Kurt Hulla for five yards, and another to Jim Moad to move the ball to Northwest's two-yard line.

Moad managed to move the ball one more yard, setting up second and goal at the one, but Northwest had different plans for Granite City. On the next play, Cole was sacked for five yards.

Cole dropped back to pass on the next play but found no one. Cole scrambled for one yard, but time ran out on the Warriors before they could start another play.

"I wasn't worried about stopping them even when they were on the one-yard line. I didn't think that they would score there because our defense would be able to hold them. From the moment they put their shoulder pads on, they're ready to play defense," Walker said referring to his defense.

"We practice that play a half hour every night from the one, and I think we're pretty good at stopping them at that range," Walker said.

Northwest's defensive effort on the goal-line stand took the enthusiasm out of the Warriors in the second half.

"It would have been a different ball game if we could have scored. We would have tied them, and we could have taken a 3-4 lead if we could have had the conversion," Wyrostek said. "We could have been ahead, but things happen."

Northwest's first quarter scoring came on a 17-yard pass from quarterback Darryl Witherspoon to split end Ronald Chatman. The play capped a 12-play, 66-yard drive.

In the third quarter, Smith made up for his shanked punt by putting the Warriors on their eight-yard line. A sack on third down put the Warriors on their own two, and the Blue Devils recovered the punt on the Warriors' 32.

A 16-yard pass play to Chatman followed for Northwest. After gaining only three yards on the next two running plays, tight end Marc Miller ran the reverse past the Warrior line for another touchdown.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Warriors seemed to figure out the Blue Devils. Northwest had fourth and 13 at the Warriors' 37-yard line after two one-yard running plays, an incomplete pass and an illegal procedure penalty.

Smith, who was back to punt, dropped the snap. Instead of being sacked, Smith ran 24 yards down the right sideline for a first down. Four plays later, Junius Jordan ran the final yard for the touchdown.

Meanwhile, the Warrior offense was unable to get anything going. The Warriors completed only two passes and ran only one running play for a gain in the second half.

Although 6-7, 270-pound tackle Paul Ballew didn't play for Granite City, Wyrostek didn't credit the lack of protection to the loss of one lineman.

"The loss of one man doesn't lose a game for you," Wyrostek said. "We missed some blocks and didn't capitalize on our mistakes. When your line doesn't execute and your defense can't stop the rush, you're going to be in a lot of trouble."

"We got beat up front, and they wouldn't let us pass as much as we wanted to. They ran a slot reverse and they were untouched for a touchdown," Wyrostek said.

The Warriors will try to put things together one last time Saturday in Strevor in the season finale. The kickoff is scheduled for 2 p.m.

Trojan gridders end season with Homecoming win

By MICHAEL BARTELS

of the Press-Record

MADISON — It was a successful football season in at least three ways at Madison high school is over, and it went out on a winning note as the Trojans won their homecoming against Red Bud Friday night, 22-6.

Madison's first possession was cut short when Victor Valentine was intercepted early in the first period, but Madison soon regained the football when Red Bud fumbled.

On the second play from scrimmage, Scrum carried the ball to the Red Bud four-yard line. On the next play, Valentine hit Scrum for a four-yard pass for the first score. Valentine then connected with Darryl McCormick for the first touchdown.

In the ensuing two-and-a-half quarters, neither team seemed to want to score.

On the Madison kickoff, Red Bud fumbled the ball and Madison regained possession. On the first play from scrimmage, Sean Brown carried the ball to the Red Bud two-yard line. The play was called back on a Madison holding penalty.

On the next play, Avery Blockton carried the ball back to the 32. Again a holding penalty, pushing Madison back to their own 35. Finally Madison was forced to punt.

The next four possessions were marked by quick punts by both teams, and the score at the half was Madison, 8, Red Bud 0.

Starting off the second half, Red Bud looked as if it were going ready to start moving the ball. On fourth and two at their own 46 Red Bud went for the first down and got it.

On second and 10, Red Bud's Dan Scheckelben broke for a nine-yard gain. The next two plays were probably two of the biggest plays of the game for the defense.

On third-and-one, Red Bud quarterback Tony Schrader was sacked at the line of scrimmage for no gain by Leroy Latham and Dan McCormick. The next play, fourth and one, Latham and McCormick duplicated their effort. Red Bud gave up the ball to Madison on the Trojans' 33-yard line.

Midway through the third period, Scheckelben, doing double duty on defense, intercepted a deflected Valentine pass and returned the ball to the Madison 10-yard line. On the second play Valentine was called for pass interference, setting up Scheckelben for a four-yard run for Red Bud's score.

Scheckelben also carried the conversion for Red Bud, tying the score at 8-8. In the fourth period, the Trojans were literally saved by Red Bud's big penalties.

On third and 23 yards to go, Valentine threw long for Delander Crockwell and Red Bud was called for pass interference, giving Madison a reprieve, 15 yards and a first down. Two plays later, Red Bud was called for a facemask violation, giving Madison yet another 15 yards and another first down.

Three plays later, Blockton broke up the middle to score Madison's second touchdown and Valentine ran a keeper to the right for the conversion.

Four plays after Red Bud took the kickoff, Valentine intercepted Red Bud's Schrader and returned the ball 50 yards to the Red Bud 28-yard line.

On fourth-and-nine Kelly Scrum made a diving catch at the Red Bud 13-yard line, short of the first down, but was victim of a late hit which set Madison up with a first-and-goal at the Red Bud eight. Blockton carried the ball up the middle for the score. The conversion was short, making the final score, 22-6.

Don Smith, first-year Madison coach, said he was pleased with the season.

"I love football," he said. "The kids were great. We're coming around. That's three wins this year. The kids are feeling pretty good."

Forest Park avenges earlier GCC loss

By MICHAEL BARTELS

of the Press-Record

ST. LOUIS — "It was a pretty big upset over there. We had some revenge in our eyes," said Forest Park Coach Jim Boken. In the 3-0 rematch victory over the Granite City Center's Stars Friday night at St. Louis University High Stadium.

The game was all but inspired.

Joe Lemaster, the Stars' regular goal keeper was out with a sprained ankle suffered in a practice earlier in the week. The Stars picked up Marc Parker, who plays for the basketball Stars, and who played in goal last year for the Collinsville High School soccer team, to serve in goal for the Stars.

There was nothing for anyone to gain, or to lose, in the contest.

Last week Forest Park clinched second place in the conference with a record of 5-2 and Pin Valley clinched the championship with 7 wins against only one loss. And the Stars, with a conference record of 1-6, also had little to gain, or lose.

"The overall contest had no real meaning to it," Stars' coach Larry Petri said. "It was a game to finish the season. We went into the game that way. We wanted to survive. If we get the win, that's great."

The game started out with the Stars in control, taking the ball to Forest Park.

"The first goal early hurt us quite a bit," Petri said. "The first seven or eight minutes we took the ball to them. We got the momentum and we couldn't get back in it."

Less than five minutes into the game Forest Park scored their first goal on a breakaway one on one against Parker, making the score 1-0.

At the 27:55 mark, Forest Park scored their second goal off of a header into the right side of the goal.

Petri said his team was trying some things new in the game. He wanted to get Rick Moder, Jimmy Doyle and John Reiminger more into the offense.

"We just couldn't get untracked," Petri said. "Trying something new may not be the best way to come into a game. But it is a good chance to try things against a caliber team."

Ten minutes into the second half Forest Park scored their third goal on a thundering centering pass in front of the goal from 40 yards out.

With the regular season finished, Petri is now focusing on the playoffs, which will begin Wednesday afternoon at the Granite City Center.

The Stars will host Lincoln Land Community College in the first round of the regional playoffs. The Stars are the number two seed in the four-team region, ranked behind Lewis and Clark and in front of Lincoln and Lincoln Land.

If the Stars take the contest Wednesday they will face Lewis and Clark for the third time this season.

JAMES NEWSOME

James Edward Newsome Sr., 38, is seeking another term on the Madison School Board in the Nov. 8 election. The sheriff department lieutenant is one of three aspirants for two-year terms.

Newsome was appointed to the Board of Education Oct. 1, 1979, filling a vacancy caused by the death of Elvers Johnson.

He then was elected without opposition in April 1980 to a two-year unexpired term. The term later was extended to 3½ years by the current Illinois election consolidation law.

A 1963 graduate of Madison High School, he has been a Madison resident for 21 years. He and his wife, Lucille, have two sons, Derrick, 17, and James Jr., 15. They reside on Market Street.

After working for ten years at General Steel Industries, Newsome joined the Madison County sheriff's department in June 1973 as a patrol deputy. In 1974, he graduated from the Police Academy at the University of Illinois.

He became a detective in January 1975, detective sergeant in June 1978 and lieutenant in May 1983. He supervises some of the patrol functions, serves as a process control officer and performs the duties of assistant watch commander of Platoon B.

He has served on the major case squad of the St. Louis metropolitan area and has received many letters of commendation for achievements as a deputy as well as numerous letters of praise from other police agencies.

Newsome attended Belleville Area College and McKendree College, majoring in administration of justice.

The candidate believes he has been a dependable representative of the community in school matters, and he continues to encourage parents to take an interest in school programs. His goal is "the betterment of our school system."

PAUL BARGIEL

Paul Bargiel is seeking re-election Nov. 8 to the Madison Board of Education, as one of three candidates for two-year terms.

Bargiel, 40, has been a member of the board since April 1978. He won a one-year unexpired term at that time and then was elected in April 1979 to a three-year term, later extended by the Illinois election law. He is a 1961 Madison High School graduate.

He was promoted in January 1980 from detective to sergeant on the Madison police force, which he joined March 5, 1970. His detective work dates back to 1971.

From January 1968 until joining the police, Bargiel was a member of the Madison County sheriff's department, attaining the rank of lieutenant and assignment as chief jailer. His earlier positions with the sheriff staff were assistant jailer, dispatcher and night rider.

Before joining the sheriff department, he worked for the Reese Drug Co. and the Monumental Life Insurance Co.

Bargiel served for a number of years on the St. Louis area major case squad, first being named to the squad as an investigator in 1967. His memberships have included the Madison County and Illinois police associations.

He was born in Madison and has been a lifelong Quad-City resident. His family resided in Granite City during the late 1940s.

The candidate studied at Belleville Area College, the University of Illinois Police Training Institute and the St. Louis Police Academy. He has been an instructor in the law enforcement program at Lewis and Clark College.

Bargiel says his daily work keeps him in close contact with the community and aware of problems and needs. He favors education "basics" and community involvement in the schools.

VICTOR VALENTINE

Victor A. Valentine Sr. is one of three candidates for two-year terms on the Madison School Board in the Nov. 8 election.

His opponents are two incumbent board members, Paul Bargiel and James E. Newsome.

A resident of the City of Venice and of Madison Community Unit School District 12, Valentine, 41, serves as an alderman of Venice's Fourth Ward.

Originally elected to the Venice City Council in 1979, he was re-elected in April 1983.

A resident of 99 Mercedia Ave., Valentine has resided in the North Venice area for 39 years.

He is a graduate of the former Dunbar Elementary School and of Madison High School, later attending Colorado Technical College and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Valentine is a finisher at Consolidated Aluminum Corp., where he has worked for 18 years. He served in the U.S. Air Force for five years.

The school board candidate is a past commander of Henry Mitchell American Legion Post 799. He is a past internal affairs officer of the Bond-Madison Counties American Legion and a past board member of the YMCA.

Valentine is a co-founder of the People's Organization to Benefit the Children of Venice.

His activities as a city official have included arranging for demolition of dilapidated homes, encouraging registration of local residents to vote, opposing hazardous waste disposal in Venice, emphasizing neighborhood pride, and aiding youth and senior citizen programs.

He and his wife, the former JoAnn Hamm, have three sons, Victor II, Anthony and Vincent.
